To whom it may concern,

I am writing this application in response to the advertisement published in Thousand Careers. I take the opportunity of presenting my CV as one of the deserving candidates to fulfill the position. You will note from my enclosed CV that my educational standard as well as my job assignments during last few years through which I have had exposure and hands-on experience in content writing and social media campaigns. You can find samples of my works in my blog (www.ashraf.live) and WPDIVINE (www.wpdivine.com).

I believe that working in a reputed organization like yours will provide me an excellent opportunity for my career's growth in the area of content creation and social media campaigns. I am genuinely capable of collaborating with my team members and executing plans. I have been creating contents for my present organization and other social organizations on social media for the last five years. Recently, I have started working on video contents as well. I took an affiliate marketing course at BITM, and I have been working on my analytical skills using Facebook insights, Facebook business manager, Google Analytics and other tools like SEO Quake and MOZ. As a student of French, I have the ability to extend my research skills and communicate to French-speaking people. I am confident that if I am provided with the opportunity to work with professionals, I will prove myself to be an important asset for your organization through my dedication, sincerity and highest level of professionalism.

Thank you in advance for giving me the opportunity to become a part of your reputed organization.

Sincerely,

Ashraf Ahmed
