COVER LETTER

Assalamu Alaikum. I have completed in Computer Science and Engineering degree from North East University Bangladesh. I have a strong background on ICT.I am very dedicated on working with you.I will make good psychological relation with my co-workers and try to give better performance and quality on information and technology for problem solving.I have a background on programming and developing. Besides right now I have done research on "Optical Character Recognition" for Bangla language. I believe that learning anything with amusements amazingly change anyone future. I am also aware of Search Engine Optimization and completed its course from renowned coursera.com and other internet sources. Besides I did so many academic project for web and desktop platform. I am confident about English Proficiency and I believe that I can show my dedication by working with you.