

Dear Sir,

I'm writing in response to your recently advertised position for an English Teacher. I am very interested in this opportunity and believe that my qualifications, education and professional experience would make me a strong candidate for the position.

I have more than one year of experience as an English Teacher. I believe I could make a valuable contribution to furthering your institution's success and goals.

I am enclosing my detailed Resume for consideration. Please inform me through email or phone if I am short listed for the interview.

Thank you.

Kind regards,

Muhi Uddin